

I believe that more media consolidation will result in less citizen access to our political process. I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.